

Luisa Futoransky

Book Presentation and Bilingual Poetry Reading of Nettles/Ortigas (2016)

Cartografía sentimental: la erupción de la catástrofe en la creación
[A Sentimental Cartography: Catastrophe's Eruption in Creation]

Wednesday, April 19, 2017

5:30 p.m.

Room 114 Van Hise Hall

Guggenheim Fellow and Chevalier in the French Ordre des Arts, Luisa Futoransky is an Argentine writer, poet, scholar and journalist living in France. With keen insight and humor, Luisa writes about love, voyage, exile and womanhood as central motifs of both our contemporary life as well as her identity as a Jewish intellectual.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, the University Lectures Knapp Fund, the Mosse/Weinstein Center for Jewish Studies and the Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies Program

Free and Open to the Public

*Photograph by Luisa Futoransky

